

Could you be our Sessional Community Gardener for the Shared Roots Community Garden in the heart of Roehampton?

Do you believe gardens can transform communities?

We are looking for an experienced, enthusiastic gardener to help deliver a vibrant programme of mindful gardening sessions and practical workshops in our new community garden in Roehampton from November 2026 through to April 2027.

You will inspire local residents to connect with nature, improve wellbeing, learn new skills and help create a thriving community space. Working alongside volunteers and community members and supported by our project co-ordinator, you'll deliver engaging sessions that make gardening accessible, enjoyable and rewarding for everyone.

We are particularly interested in hearing from people with experience in community gardening, food growing, horticulture or environmental education. Experience working with young people and people with SEND is welcomed.

What you will do

- Deliver weekly mindful gardening volunteer sessions
- Plan and lead practical gardening workshops
- Share horticultural knowledge in accessible and engaging ways
- Support wellbeing, confidence and community connection
- Help create an inclusive and welcoming environment for all participants

Fee: £5,760 – see job description and personal specification for full breakdown of the fee.

Location: The Shared Roots Community Garden, Roehampton Methodist Church, Minstead Gardens, London, SW15 4EB

Full job description and personal specification at <https://ourroehampton.org/contact>

Send us CV and a covering letter telling us about your passion for plants, people and the power of community growing and relevant experience and skills for this role by 5pm on 23 October to noreen.meehan@ourroehampton.org

For an informal conversation about the role please contact Noreen at this email address or on 07858 621678. Please note during 5-9 October Noreen is on annual leave so in her absence please contact Preya project co-ordinator on 07544 591079 at preya.chauhan@ourroehampton.org Please note Preya works on Wednesdays and Thursdays.